GREENVILLE

Funeral of Miss Elizabeth Mulholland

At 8.30 Wednesday morning the funeral of Miss Elizabeth Mulholland was held from the home of her mother on Boswell avenue. Many friends and relatives attended. A large number of beautiful floral tributes were arranged about the casket.

At the services at the Sacred Heart church, in Taftville, Rev. U. O. Belle-rose sang a high requiem mass. Two hymns were sung by the choir. The bearers were James W. J. Clement, Joubert, W. J. Houlihan and Thomas Brennan. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery, where Father Bellerose read a committal service at the grave.

BIG STRIKE IN

NEW LONDON SETTLED.

Thousand Laborers to Return to Work After Three Weeks' Strike.

Just as the clock struck the hour of noon Wednesday Mayor Ernest E. Rogers of New London was able to announce that the strike of 1,000 laborers in that city, now in its third week, had come to an end. The announcement was made in his office in the municipal building in the presence of several contractors, President Della and other officials of Laborers' union No. 1 and a delegation of 30 men from Fall River and New Bedford in the employ of the T. A. Scott company and the New England Construction company.

The termination of the controversy followed the acceptance by employers of a proposition made Wednesday by representatives of the union. The latter agreed to return to work at the present schedule for a period of 45 days, dating from May 20, at the expiration of which time they are guaranteed $2.25 for an eight-hour day. A formal agreement to this effect was signed before night.

News of the settlement of the strike spread rapidly and was received with general satisfaction. It is expected that all construction work will be resumed with a full quota of laborers in the morning.

COMMON PLEAS COURT

WILL SIT TODAY.

Will Hear Case of Mary Sylvia of Westerly vs. Deputy Sheriff Casey.

The court of common pleas will come in at New London today to hear the case of Mary Sylvia of Westerly against Deputy Sheriff William H.
Casey.

The Sylvia brothers conducted a shoe store in Pawtucket, in West Broad street, just over the Westerly boundary line, and Sheriff Casey attached property in the store in a suit brought by a rubber company. Mary, the wife of one of the Sylvia brothers, claims that the property attached by the sheriff belonged to her and she has brought suit to replevin, and the sheriff is of necessity the defendant in the case.
Attorney Clarence E. Roche is counsel for plaintiff and Judge Herbert W.
Rathbun for defendant.

CELEBRATED THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. James McIntosh of Pomfret Complete Fifty Years of Married Life—Have Resided at Their Present Home Since 1901.

Mr. and Mrs. James McIntosh of Pomfret completed fifty years of married life on Wednesday and are receiving the congratulations of a host of friends.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh are natives of Pictou County, Nova Scotia and in childhood were schoolmates.
Early in life Mr. McIntosh learned the harness maker's trade and went from Nova Scotia to Dorchester, Mass., where he followed his trade for some years. In 1888 he went to Hyde Park, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh were united in marriage May 24, 1866. They have six children, all of whom are living and they have eleven grandchildren.
Mr. McIntosh retired in 1901 and most of the time since he and Mrs. McIntosh have made their home in Pomfret.

Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh are well known to many Pomfret people by whom they are highly regarded. Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh are enjoying excellent health at the present time and take much interest in current events.

DUMPED MUD AND SAND IN COVE.

Bench Warrant Signed in Case of T. A. Scott Company.

The United States district court opened its May term in Hartford on Tuesday with Judge Thomas presiding.

Fifteen indictments were presented to the federal grand jury. Among them were the cases of Dr. P. D. Senior, arrested in Waterbury for prescribing narcotic drugs; Jerome A. L.
Phelan, a former letter carrier at New Haven, charged with embezzling mail matter; Edward A. Peck, formerly postmaster at Rocky Hill, charged with embezzling postal funds; James A. Crawford, arrested in Bridgeport for defrauding the government with bogus money orders; Leon Jim, of Bridgeport, who was found to have opium in his restaurant; and Edward E. Winber, alias Edward E. Burns, who admitted stealing blank money orders from the United States ship Vermont and forging the names of the postmaster of New York and others to them and cashing them at New London.

Three informations were issued and bench warrants signed in the case of the Ardena Centrefree company of New Haven against the T. A. Scott company of New London for dumping mud and sand in the cove at a point different than designated by the department; against the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad company for failing to open the draw bridge over the Pequonnock river at Bridgeport, September 14, 1915, and against the East Side Coal company of Bridgeport for building a wharf outside the harbor line in Yellow Mill pond harbor.

A petition of creditors asking that the Ardena Centrefree company of New Haven be adjudged bankrupt was on the calendar for hearing today, but the company's representative stated there was no objection to being adjudged bankrupt.

Assignment of civil cases to be heard at New Haven were made by Judge Thomas.

Leather Getting Scarce.

Norwich shoe dealers are interested in the invitation of the National Shoe Wholesalers' Association of America to attend a meeting on Thursday of this week, at the headquarters of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce in that city, to discuss the growing scarcity and increasing cost of leather and shoe findings of all kinds. It is said that a possible outcome of the conference will be to demand a bounty to prohibit exports of leather of all kinds. Should this action be deemed necessary, it is planned to have a committee to Washington to take the matter up with the proper officials.

Among the organizations that have been invited to send delegates to the meeting are the Morocco Manufacturers' National Association, National Association of Tanners, National Shoe Wholesalers' Association, National Shoe Finders' Association, and the Patent Leather and Enamel Association. These interests, it is said, represent more than $1,000,000,000 of invested capital.

On Wednesday a special meeting of the executive committee of the National Boot and Shoe Manufacturers' Association will be held at the Hotel Astor, New York, to consider the same questions.
